BIO

Terance is a Student, Practitioner, & Teacher of the Western Mystery Tradition & Occultism with a strong focus on Hermetic Qabalah & Ceremonial Magick. With many years of self-directed work in shadow integration & ongoing interest in psychology, his approach blends inner transformation with structured spiritual discipline & symbolic understanding.

A creative & technically minded individual, Terance integrates ancient esoteric knowledge with modern tools & methods of learning. He builds tools of the arts through his design studio, Blackened Boutique & Customs & is the founder of Occulta Pneuma, an initiative devoted to study & practical application of the Esoteric Arts.

Personal experiences including encounters with otherworldly entities & profound moments witnessing death have deeply shaped his philosophical outlook & opened the way to a lifelong pursuit of spiritual knowledge & self-understanding. These formative experiences inform a grounded yet exploratory approach to inner work and esoteric practice.

He is a primary cast member and researcher in the scarenetwork original series Conjuring Truth by Shadow Work Productions LLC.

CURRENT PROJECT

Conjuring Truth follows a fearless team of occultists, mediums, and paranormal investigators as they delve into the world's darkest hauntings, demonic events, and hidden rituals. Traveling to locations steeped in folklore and feared for generations, they uncover terrifying truths behind the myths—confronting the occult not as outsiders, but from within. This series seeks the truth buried in shadows, separating fact from fiction, and debunking Hollywood's overactive imagination.
